

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

Reggio Calabria

Virtual tour by

Antonino
Ferdinando
Eleonora
Paolo
Irene
Francesco
Lorenzo

Reggio Calabria

Reggio Calabria in the Past and Now

- 170,000 inhabitants
- The patron saint of Reggio Calabria is Saint George
- this city was one of the main cities of the Greek empire due to its good geographical position.

Remains of Greek walls

La Via Marina

Reggio Calabria has many things to see:

- the National Archaeological Museum
- the Greek walls found by digging
- the columns by the artist Tresoldi
- Via Marina

Columns by Tresoldi

Reggio Calabria was destroyed by the devastating earthquake of 1908.

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

SOME IMPORTANT PLACES

The National Archaeological Museum of Reggio Calabria

- important collection of artifacts from Magna Graecia.
- it is close to the Reggio Calabria waterfront and near Corso Garibaldi

Ferdinando

The Riace Bronzes

- they are from 460–450 BC
- statues of two Greek soldiers
- they were found on August 16, 1972
- in the Museum since 2014

Corso Garibaldi

It is an avenue along which there are various shops, decorated during the Christmas period with lights and music.

Eleonora

The theatre is the most important theatre, it's very old and very big, where shows and musicals are made.

Italy Square is a big square where there are archeological remains and political palaces

The cathedral

Here, we have the Cathedral of Reggio Calabria. It was completed in 1928. This is the most important and the largest church in Reggio. This is an important attraction for tourists, who can find here the Madonna of Consolazione.

Paolo

The celebration day

On the second Saturday in September, in the morning, the Madonna is transported from the Basilica of the Hermitage to the Cathedral, and people can follow her for 3.5 kilometers. This is a special day for all the city of Reggio Calabria and around, that celebrate this day with some particular traditions.

- Profane traditions (fireworks, in the photo)

- Culinary traditions ("nzudde", in the photo)

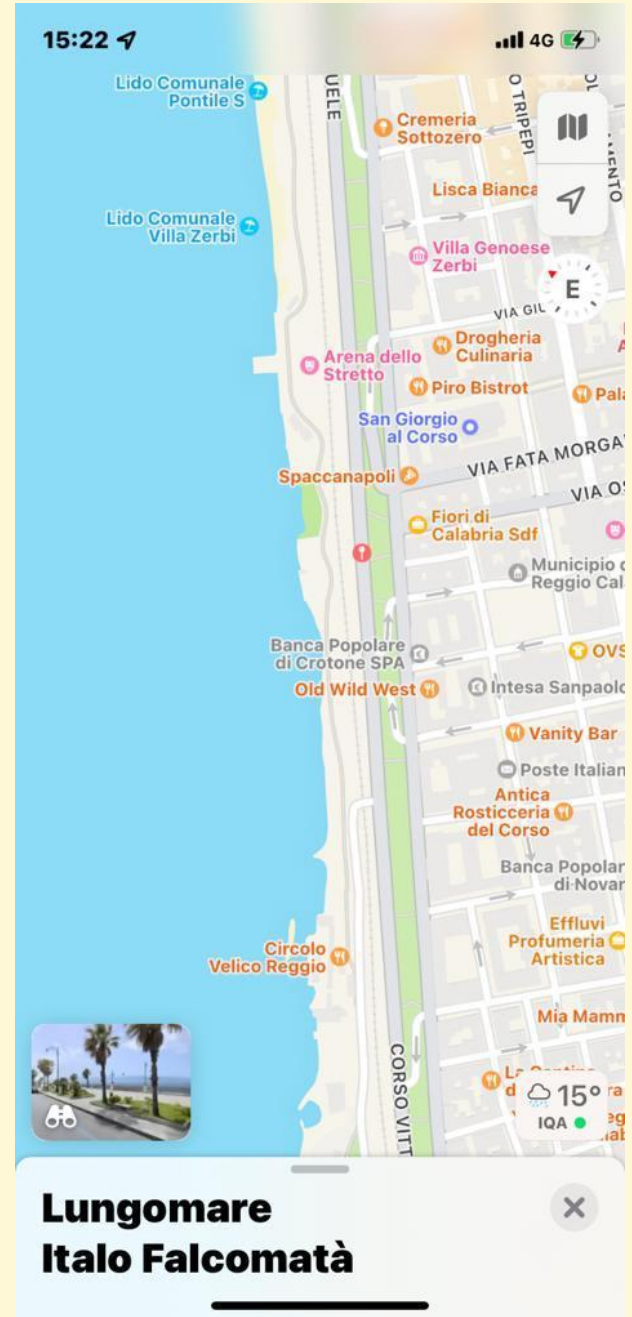

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

The water front

Irene

The Waterfront

- the waterfront is called the most beautiful kilometer in Italy
- It's dedicated to the mayor Italo Falcomatà
- there are two roads, of which one have a lot of ice-creams shops and one's next to the sea

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

Arena

- the arena is a modern theatre built in the Ancient Greek style
- in the centre there is a statue representing Athena for the defense of Reggio

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

TYPICAL FOOD

Panino con le frittole

- It is a sandwich with meat
- Eaten during the feast of the Madonna

Francesco

Nduja

- It is a spicy salami
- spread on bread
- typical product of Reggio Calabria
- famous all over the world

Nzudde

- the nzudde are special biscuits
- they are filled with honey

Lorenzo

Bergamot

- It is a fruit that grows only in our territory
- Its colour is green
- It is sour
- It is like a lemon.

Crispelle

- It is a piece of dough,
- Its taste is salty
- It can be filled with 'nduja and anchovies

Cesare

Ice cream

- The ice cream is a strong point in Reggio,
- the best parlor is Cesare
- But there are other good ice cream shop like Sotto Zero.

BRITISH SCHOOL
International House
Reggio Calabria

Thank you for your attention!

